

RUMOUR/LORE TABLE

When your character hears a Rumour at a local tavern or gains knowledge of Lore while perhaps researching in the librarys of Elrond or Oswald Breeker, coming across a story of old, then you may roll on the table below to quickly generate a random Rumour or Lore result. This resource supports players in Strider Mode & also Loremasters who want to give the players a random hook to a Landmark or otherwise.

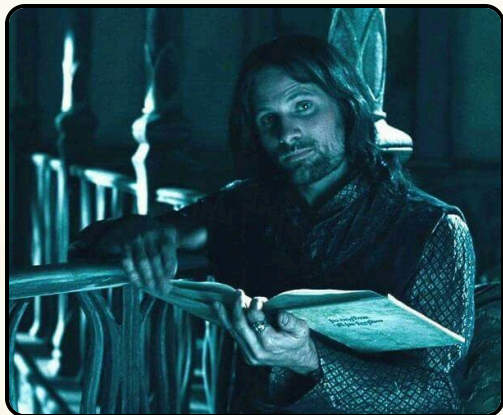

First roll on the Rumours/Lore Table and then refer to the correct Landmark Table according to the result on the Feat Die. Then roll another Feat Die on the Landmark Table and refer to the source material. Feel free to roll again if the Rumour isn't suitable for your story or you've received that result in the past.
